WEALTH WELLNESS WHEEL

39 DISCOVERY CARDS

Discover your client's top priorities by engaging them in a quick exercise of sorting and prioritizing the deck of cards

DISCOVERY WORKSHEET

Capture the details clients share about their top priorities, where family members differ in their priorities, the assets clients reveal during the discussion

Best practices for using the discovery cards & worksheet

Close new business, engage clients, uncover hidden assets, retain clients, and help manage fiduciary risk.

1. CREATE TWO STACKS

Ask the client to sort the Discovery Cards into two stacks:

- Things that are “Important And Concerning To Me Right Now”
- Things that are “Not Important Or Concerning To Me Right Now

BE CAREFUL NOT TO MISS ANYTHING

Do not remove any cards from the deck—or you might miss an important detail in your clients’ priorities, circumstances and preferences.

2. I.D. TOP THREE PRIORITIES

Ask the client to re-sort the stack of “Important And Concerning To Me” cards and identify only the Top Three Priorities that they are most concerned about right now.

WORKING WITH COUPLES OR MULTIPLE GENERATIONS?

Give each person their own deck of cards to sort. This will give you—and them—the opportunity to uncover where their priorities overlap, and where they don’t. Facilitating and mediating this important conversation will help you earn their trust and loyalty—and may improve their planning and investing success.

4. THE RESULT: TRUST & LOYALTY

Engaging your clients to identify and articulate their priorities, and then helping them address those priorities, will build trust and loyalty.

HOW OFTEN SHOULD I DO DISCOVERY?

Go through this exercise every 12-18 months, especially with your top clients, to ensure you are on the same page.

3. GO DEEPER

Focus on the Top Three Priorities. Ask open-ended questions to uncover the underlying emotion and motivation sparked by the Top Three. Start scribing! Use the worksheet to capture these details.

GO-TO OPEN-ENDED QUESTIONS

- Tell me more about these top three priorities.
- Which other family members need to be involved?
- How would you and your family feel if we accomplished these goals?
