

Introduction and Background

In 2019 the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) introduced rules on fund governance to strengthen the duty of investment managers to act in investors' best interests. Following these changes an authorized fund manager (AFM), in this case the Board of Directors of FundRock Partners Limited (FundRock), must perform an annual assessment on whether funds for which they act as AFM are providing value to investors, looking at not just costs in isolation but also in the context of the performance of the funds and other benefits that can be provided. Such assessments should help investors determine whether investment managers are providing value so that they can make more informed choices regarding investment providers.

We have therefore conducted a rigorous review of the following funds on which FundRock act as the AFM:

FP Russell Investments Defensive Assets Fund

FP Russell Investments Real Assets Fund

FP Russell Investments UK Growth Assets Fund

FP Russell Investments International Growth Assets Fund

FP Russell Investments Multi Asset Income Fund

FP Russell Investments Multi Asset Growth Fund I

FP Russell Investments Multi Asset Growth Fund II

FP Russell Investments Multi Asset Growth Fund III

FP Russell Investments Multi Asset Growth Fund IV

FP Russell Investments Multi Asset Growth Fund V

(Each a "Fund", together the "Funds")

We have assessed these Funds against the following seven investment criteria set by the FCA:

- 1. Quality of Service
- 2. Performance
- General costs of the Funds.
- 4. Economies of Scale
- 5. Comparable Market Rates
- 6. Comparable Services
- 7. Classes of Units

Further detail on each of these criteria will be provided in the following pages, starting with a fund-by-fund summary of the results of the assessment.

Our overall conclusion is that all FP Russell Funds provide value for investors.

How we assessed each of the seven criteria and the rating we arrived at are discussed on the following pages.

1. Quality of Service

When considering the range and quality of service that an investor receives, we looked at the service we give investors in terms of quality and accessibility of documentation and our personnel, as well as how the Funds are serviced by outsourced service providers. As an ACD, we also considered the quality of our oversight of the outsourced service providers.

Accessibility

The Funds have the same investment criteria, service levels and documentation across individuals, platforms and other institutions which may invest in the Funds, regardless of the size of the investment. All investors can contact us about their investment via telephone, fax or post.

Customer Experience

We reviewed how many complaints we received and considered factors like delays in Subscriptions, Redemption or Distribution payments as well as enhanced customer tools such as Shareholder Meetings, monthly factsheets and other useful tools to enable investors to understand how the Funds are performing and give better insight into the investment strategy.

Oversight

There are three key elements to the operation of the funds which are outsourced and overseen by FundRock as the AFM. These are:

Investment Management: Russell Investments Limited

Investor Dealing: SS&C Financial Services Europe Limited Fund Administration: State Street Bank and Trust Company

FundRock independently monitors and evaluates the performance of these outsourced functions via a robust governance framework. We set targets for service levels and operating standards, and considered a number of these in our assessment, the most notable being, with regards to investment management, the quality of the investment manager's systems (including the processes used to manage Funds' investments and investor access tools), the quality of the investment manager's investor engagement, as well as delays in services.

Based on the areas assessed, the Board of Directors concluded that the quality of service provides value for all Funds

Performance Fee

The Funds have no performance fees regardless of the level of performance it achieves.

Entry and Exit Charges

Share Class	Entry Charge	Exit Charge
C*	0.00%	0.00%

^{*} A & B Share Classes underwent mandatory conversions to Share Class C on 29 July 2022.

During periods of significant volatility, or for very large subscriptions or redemptions, swing pricing may be employed to safeguard investors, however these would not be included in the OCF calculations above because, where applied, this is a one-off charge.

In FundRock's assessment, the on-going charges of the Funds are in line with relevant peers and the Fund costs provides value for money.

4. Economies of Scale

FundRock is one of the largest third-party AFMs in the UK, with more than £18bn in assets under management, providing the funds managed by it with benefits in terms of access to economies of scale and purchasing power offered to a larger AFM.

This, combined with the AUM of the Funds themselves, ensure they continue to benefit from economies of scale in terms of pricing.

With effect from 29 July 2022, share classes A Accumulation, A Income and B Accumulation were consolidated into share classes C Accumulation and C Income of the respective Funds. This consolidation, has reduced the share classes available achieving greater economies of scale.

5. Comparable Market Rates

To help evaluate the cost of investing in the assessed Funds we sought to compare their charges with comparable funds that investors can buy. As the Funds are managed in line with the Investment Association's applicable sectors, we defined the Funds within those IA sectors as peer groups.

The cost of investing into the assessed Funds are in-line withtheir respective peer groups.

6. Comparable Services (Internal)

In this section we were required to consider whether investors received fair investment terms when investing in the Funds. FundRock only offer AFM services to collective investment vehicles (CIS) i.e. investment funds.

We therefore compared the Funds' charges with other funds for which FundRock acts as the AFM and our assessment is that the charges are broadly similar.

7. Classes of Units

In this section of the assessment we have determined if shareholders are invested in appropriate share classes.

While making our assessment, we had considered the pricing of a share class against the pricing of other share class within the same fund, as well as the points of differentiation between these unit classes. Where the rights of share classes are apparently similar (e.g. similar minimum investment requirements, distribution arrangements etc.) while the pricing is different, the board will be expected to consider whether it is appropriate for unitholders to remain in the class with higher charges when there is an apparently cheaper alternative.
