Challenges and solutions

A complex insurance environment with a unique set of challenges requires deep knowledge and investment proficiency

Challenge: Staying ahead of regulatory change

Solution:

Choose a partner who can help you to stay ahead of global and local regulation, such as Solvency II, by providing technical, advisory and reporting expertise for the constantly changing insurance environment. Receive improved, transparent monitoring for the risk, performance and costs of each mandate in line with appetite and objectives.

Challenge: Strengthening governance

Solution:

Outsource full or partial accountability of the investment outcomes, providing the flexibility to adjust to your changing performance indicators. Increase the dedicated investment resources at your disposal and remove key-man risk and team pressures. Benefit from robust processes and receive best in class education against a changing insurance backdrop.

Challenge: Meeting investment objectives

Solution:

Transform your existing method by employing a dynamic investment process which utilises a broad scope of investments and uniquely specialist investment managers. Use a multi-asset approach beyond the traditional fixed income model, to tailor risk and return to meet shifting liabilities and investment goals.

Insurance solutions

A range of partnership solutions dedicated to meeting your needs

Outsourced chief investment officer (OCIO)

Your objectives, our delivery: a bespoke approach

Our OCIO solution can provide a unique and wide range of strategic partnerships through one relationship. Insurers can gain access to the necessary investment expertise to help meet their investment goals, manage their appetite for risk and volatility as well as meeting their implementation requirements around Solvency II and regulatory reporting.

Funds and strategies

Diversified to efficiently navigate markets

A multi-asset approach that combines best-of-breed specialist investment managers with our custom smart beta strategies, factor exposures, asset allocation expertise and world-class implementation capabilities. Help minimise risks and exploit market opportunities in a timely and dynamic way through our open architecture approach. Access alternatives to the traditional benchmark approach including unconstrained bond strategies and real assets.

Implementation

Manage your underlying costs down

Effectively access all of the trading and implementation tools required to preserve realised returns and drive costs down with only one contract. Access dedicated asset-class experts and a 24-hour global trading desk. Receive management at the total portfolio level, integrated across multiple services with clear, transparent reporting. Our unsurpassed access to liquidity and pure agency model means no hidden fees or undisclosed revenue sources.
