Fund Update

The Fund outperformed in a positive month for Emerging Markets. Effective stock selection was the key driver of relative returns. This was strongest within South Korea, Taiwan, Brazil and India and outweighed negative country positioning. Semiconductor names SK Hynix, and MediaTek were key contributors. The Fund's growth-oriented managers overcame factor headwinds to perform well, aided by exposure to US-based names. Negative selection within China (industrials) weighed on further outperformance.
